

Illinois FY2017 AmeriCorps State & National Grant Awards

Below is the FY2017 AmeriCorps grant funding breakdown for Illinois. State formula and state competitive funding will be awarded to Serve Illinois, the Governor-appointed State Service Commission. National direct funding will be awarded to grantees headquartered in Illinois that are operating in more than one state. Illinois AmeriCorps members will also receive post-service Segal AmeriCorps Education Awards to help pay for post-secondary education or pay down student loans. These funding streams all factor into the total award received, shown here:

Funding Type	Amount
State Formula	$4,528,613
State Competitive	$6,525,285
Education Awards	$4,432,800
Total CNCS Funding Awarded	$15,486,697

In addition to the federal funding from CNCS, these AmeriCorps grantees will leverage an additional $33,687,683 in matching support and other resources. Together, they will engage a total of 986 AmeriCorps members in national service.

The following table outlines the successful AmeriCorps grantees in Illinois. Details include the name and location of the program, funding amounts, and number of AmeriCorps members serving.
